"What is My Medium"

Tears

By April G

Water sliding down my cheeks, each drop makes me more weak, what is this emotion? Feeling this at a time of a broken heart, Feeling this on a rainy day, feeling this is when I'm lonely at night, dropping down on me when I'm frightened, sometimes it could be a joy, sometimes I try to hold it in to avoid it, but in the end that's all we've got.

tears shows it all in our fears, no matter what it's always gonna be here, our tears, tears of madness, tears of sadness, tears of passion, tears of love, will never go away our tears.

2 Fire racing down my face, falling with hurt, burning inside worse than out, mind of thoughts just physically killing me, pain in my heart is setting free, and 0 the only thing you see is me.

0 Tears bring it out in your fears, no matter what it's always gonna be here,
0 tears flames in teardrops, tears thinking 6 will it ever stop dropping? Everyone's tears created by emotions. Everyone has at least one tear.
