

Forever My Girl
By. April G

Reach out to me when you feel like dying and when your burdens are too many the load I will gladly share and when your heart grows weary and dark clouds cover you My girl I will stay beside you until the sun shines through.

Forever My Girl,
we have shared so much a special love we have come to know we have laughed and cried together and helped each other in love to grow
Forever My Girl
within my heart a special place for you is there because you are My Girl For Life and I will always care.

I'll be Your Wings
By Dana M

Crying in pain,
Hopelessly dieing,
Nothings the same.

I feel so empty,
I want to hide,
But I run to an angel,
Who will help me get by.

Feeling good I was understood,
But still I feel ashamed,
My angel's life is in flames.

I can't stand to see her hurt,
Fall to pieces,
With a smile to spear,
What's a girl to do when all she can do is be there?

Love was taken this angel's heart is breaking, She's fallen to pieces her wings won't fly
But she tries

I try and help her but I'm too weak, I've never learned how to fly,
I'm scared, but for you my angel
I'll give it a try.

And maybe my advice could lead you down a broken path,
And maybe I can't relate
But don't ever hesitate,
Because I'll be there
I'll be your wings

You're my angel
My best friend
To be exact
Just remember girl
I'll always have your back.
