VI. SUPERINTENDENT'S UPDATE - Species on the Edge Calendar Competition District Testing Presentation

Ms. Diane DiGiuseppe, Superintendent reported on the following:

- The students in Mrs. Reinmund's, Mrs. Bosch's and Mrs. Scully's classes at Stonybrook, participated in the Conserve Wildlife program.
- The 2018 Species on the Edge Calendar Competition will showcase a work, Bald Eagle, by 6th grade student Cody Arnold.

Ms. DiGiuseppe introduced Dr. Thomas Tufaro, Director of Curriculum, Instruction and Assessment who presented a program on District Testing.

PUBLIC COMMENT

Ms. DiGiuseppe read a statement regarding a letter which was sent to the community alleging issues at Kinnelon High School.

Many comments were made by students, community members, parents and staff regarding the allegations mentioned in the letter and that there was no truth to them. Students commented that Mr. Suda is at the front door every morning greeting the students, staff and parents as they enter the building making everyone feel welcome. He is always available for the students and ready to discuss issues with the student council. Additionally, comments were made that there is no evidence of "rampant drug use" at the school.
